Live Project:

FinXpert

Duration: 29th January to 11th March 2024

“Analysis of equity as an asset class over the decade 2014-2023”

The project involved an in-depth risk and return analysis of equity as an asset class from 2014 to 2023, focusing on indices such as SENSEX, Small Cap, Mid Cap, BSE 200, and BSE 500. Data was sourced from the official BSE website in CSV format, organized in Excel, and subjected to detailed statistical analysis. Tools like correlation were used to measure the relationship between asset classes and SENSEX, while trend lines revealed long-term patterns. Additionally, risk and return metrics were evaluated to assess the performance of each asset class over time.
